That Early Banquet.

Without looking under the bed for any political nests—if that is the place to find them—rise to inquire the whyness of holding a reunion of the Senate of 1910 at this early date? These gatherings are always held biennially in connection with the regular legislative sessions, to which they contribute social and political interest. Were the senators of 1910 so homesick for a look at each other and to review the memories of how they put the timelock amendment to sleep that they couldn't wait another year? Of course there is no room for the suspicion that the proposed candidacy of Lieut.-Gov. Shack for the governorship, or the actual candidacy of Senator Powell, who tendered the hospitality of his elegant hotel, for the lieutenant-governorship, had the remotest connection with the event of last week.—Randolph Herald.

The N. E. O. P. hall in Miles' hall Christmas night was attended by ninety couples, and seventy couples attended Saturday evening. The N. E. O. P. orchestra, with E. W. Bruce as leader, is making a hit at these dances, getting three and four couples sometimes.

Guests registered at the City hotel yesterday and to-day were as follows: J. C. Hartwell, Burlington; A. Robertson, Boston; F. H. Mann, Woodsville, N. H.; A. C. Claybrick, M. O. Miller, New York City; C. M. Armstrong, R. Armstrong, Enosburg Falls; A. J. Allan, Northfield.

The girls in the central telephone office, twelve in number, wish to thank their friends for kind remembrances on Christmas. A great number of presents poured in on them, the gifts including fruit, candy and flowers, not to forget also a big assortment of good wishes.

Chocolates that are right in every way taste as good after Christmas as before. There are many different brands, but "Belle Mead Sweeties" are the kind that stand the test and are without any question the kind to eat, because they are made from absolutely pure material and done to a turn. Exclusive agency, Barre Drug company, Depot Square Drug store.

The patrons of the Pavilion enjoyed an excellent entertainment at that little theatre yesterday, both acts being extremely pleasing, especially the act offered by Kelley and Alene, the dancers. These boys offer the best two-people dancing act ever seen in the city. This work is clean-cut and finished to the highest degree, and in their fastest work every tap is dropped in at exactly the right instant. At every show these boys were given a big, rousing round of applause. Joe Barret, with his songs and jokes, got the audience in a state of good humor at the very start, and he kept them that way throughout his act. All of the pictures are good.

Two full houses saw the pictures and vaudeville at the opera house yesterday afternoon and evening. The two acts of vaudeville pleased immensely. Larkin and Burns, in a comedy knockabout and burlesque strong act, had the audience gazing in open-mouthed wonder at their remarkable feats of strength. At the funny finish, they were greeted with roars of laughter and applause. The Kentucky trio, a lady and two men, have a very pleasing act, introducing singing, dancing and playing a number of musical instruments. Three reels of pictures are shown at each performance, changing every day. Matinee every day at 2:30.

little iron kettle, which has stood in front of the Howland block for two weeks past, were in excess of last year's income from this source, and he believes that the Christmas giving this year will compare favorably with that of any previous year.

During last week, the contributions to the little kettle amounted to an average of more than $3 per day, and Saturday this amount was more than doubly augmented. Many of the merchants about the city contributed quantities of tea, coffee and other staple goods from time to time, while others still lent their assistance by furnishing sums of money, etc.

Baptist Church.

A large congregation of both old and young people gathered in the Baptist church last evening for the annual Sunday school Christmas tree and exercises. A huge fir tree at the left of the church was heavily laden with gifts of every description and the platform where the exercises were held was decorated expressly for the occasion. The greater part of the program was given over to a novel Christmas cantata, in which many members of the Sunday school participated. "Santa's Prescription" delighted everyone present and every part of it was carried out without an interruption. The cast of characters was as follows:

"Uncle Sam," Fred Inglis; "Columbia," Beatrice Beach; "Santa Claus," Archie Watt; "Nicholas Santa Claus," Elizabeth Sutton; "Little Nicholas," Wayne Perry; "Rhodie Land," Dorothy Perry; "Alaska," Ethel Land; "North," Florence Allen; "South," Bernice Holmes; "East," Ethel Inglis; "West," Gertrude Geake; sixteen other students. During the exercises Misses Irma and Esther Cheney contributed a duet, Miss Eliza Mudgett sang a song, and Misses Muriel Cragg, Evelyn Shields, and Rosabelle Shannon sang a three-part song. Thelma Perry also gave a recitation.

After the exercises, the same Santa Claus that appeared in the cantata stripped the tree of its presents. Among the happy presentations of the evening was a handsome quilt to Deacon and Mrs. F. A. Hutchinson from the Sunshine band. The trimming of the tree and of the interior of the church was carried out under the direction of the Sunday school superintendent, Lewis James. A committee consisting of Mrs. F. A. Hutchinson, Mrs. Frank Cragg and Mrs. E. J. Bateholder had charge of the program.

Hedding M. E. Church.

Observance of the Christmas season at the Hedding Methodist church began Sunday evening at 7 o'clock with an appropriate concert program of Christmas music and recitations. The exercises were carried out almost wholly by the children of the Sunday school and a large congregation was present to enjoy them. The work of the young people reflected considerable credit upon themselves, as well as those who had the oversight of their training. The program was given as follows:

March of the children into the church, Mrs. F. D. Hathaway acting as accompanist on the piano; chorus, "Merry Christmas Bells Ring Out," Sunday school; prayer, Superintendent C. S. Andrews; welcome, Rosamond Boyce; recitation, "Christmas Song," Emily Dodge; recitation, "Papa's Letter," Corinne Eastman; song, "Little Christmas Snowflakes," six little girls; recitation, "The Fir Tree," Marion Anker; dialogue, "Offerings," three little boys; recitation, "Daisy's Letter," Leon Cummings; recitation, "A Little Child's Christmas," Doris Eastman; recitation, "Santa's Little Boy," Lyndal Lebourveau; recitation, "Lady Judith's Christmas Vision," Ruth Glyson; recitation, "The Christmas Tree Fairy," Dorothy Smith; solo, "Jesus Was a Little Child," Hazel Bruce; dialogue, "Bethlehem Stars"; recitation, Stanley Shores; duet, Madeline Camp, Lyndal Lebourveau; recitation, "Christmas Fairies," Elvira Sowden; recitation, Dorothy Shores.

At the end of the exercises, the pastor, Rev. E. O. Thayer, presented the superintendent of the Sunday school, C. S. Andrews, a handsome copy of "God's Out of Doors." The presentation was made on behalf of the Sunday school teachers and carried with it an expression of felicity toward the superintendent. Later the pastor made a few remarks on the significance of the Christmas season and brought the exercises to a close with the benediction.

The concert was given under the direction of the following committee: Mrs. J. D. Jarvis, Mrs. A. E. Lebourveau, Miss Allie Trow, and Mrs. F. D. Hathaway.

A Christmas tree and a short program of exercises for the children of the Sunday school were held in the Epworth league rooms last evening at 7 o'clock. The following numbers were contributed during the entertainment preceding the distribution of gifts: "Daisy's Letter," Leon Cummings; duet, "Hurrah for Santa Claus," Madeline Camp and Lyndal Lebourveau; violin solo, Guy Andrews; recitation, "The Reason Why," Stanley Shores; recitation, "Santa's Lit-the Boy," Lyndal Lebourveau; recitation, "Santa's Picture," Hazel Bruce.

The league rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and the presence of a brilliantly lighted Christmas tree was all that was needed to complete the scene. The gifts were taken from the tree and given out by two members of the brotherhood. A happy feature of the distribution was the presentation of a purse of money to the pastor, Rev. E. O. Thayer. The gift came as a mark of esteem from the members of the brotherhood. The Christmas festivities came to a close shortly before 10 o'clock.

Congregational Church.

The Christmas observance at the Congregational church took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when the children of the Sunday school held their yuletide merrymaking. Nor was the holiday jub-lance confined wholly to the young people, for a good many grown-ups were present and took an active part in the observance.

With the green decorations of the season, the church presented a charming appearance. Preceding the distribution of gifts, a delightful program was given by Miss Annie Messer, Miss Allie Trow, Miss Harriet Houston and Prof. W. A. Wheaton. Miss Messer contributed a piano solo at the opening of the exercises and Miss Trow followed with a reading. Miss Houston rendered a vocal solo and Miss Trow gave another reading. Prof. Wheaton brought the program to a close with a piano solo.

To the delight of the little people, a real, live Santa Claus appeared in the person of James Adie, and a rapid distribution of the gifts was in order.

A committee consisting of Mrs. C. H. Granger, Mrs. H. G. Woodruff and Mrs. James Adie had charge of the Christmas tree arrangements.

CORRECT SHOES

This shoe store represents good shoe service as distinguished from mere shoe selling.

GOOD SHOE SERVICE

means the furnishing of just the correct shoe suited to a particular requirement.

Merely to make a sale is not satisfaction to us—and merely to buy a pair of shoes is by no means certain to mean satisfaction to you.

We are able to guarantee good service—in every sense and every meaning—because we are sure of our own intentions and sure of the quality of our shoes. May we not hope that you will test our sincerity and our judgment the next time you purchase shoes?
